SENATORS FIRE HOT SHOTS AT RADIO SERVICE

Ask State Dept. for Story on "Voice of America;" Label Excerpts Sabotage.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 27—Sputteringly mad senators called the state department on the carpet today for a full story behind Voice of America broadcasts they labeled as sabotage, slander and libel.

Sample broadcast excerpts:

"New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

Nevada's two main cities compete with each other because "people get married in Las Vegas and divorced in Reno."

From Sen. Hatch (D-NM): "Drivel, nonsense and downright falsehoods."

From Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich): A demand congress rescind the $27,000,000 appropriation it voted for next year to finance the world-wide radio programs intended to portray the democratic way of life in this country.

Angered congressmen ordered a double-barreled investigation today into the broadcasts.

Senator Ferguson, the Republicans' top investigator, will head one by the senate.

Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo) will direct one for the house.

From Sen. Capehart (R-Ind): A promise to introduce a resolution calling for a top-to-bottom congressional inquiry into the state department's operation of the information program.

Principals Discharged

From the National Broadcasting company, which handled the programs under contract with the department: the writer who turned out the scripts has been fired and the supervisor who reviewed them has been "relieved of his post."

This, however, failed to dispel the storm.

It broke in the senate late yesterday when Sen. Capehart read excerpts from a series of programs broadcast late in 1947 and early this year to South and Central America. The Indiana senator said they purported to deal with life and history in the 48 states as seen through the eyes of two travelers.

One script on Utah referred to Brigham Young, the Mormon leader, as "carrying a bottle of whisky in one pocket and a cud of chewing tobacco in the other." But, said the script, Young used neither.

Quoting further, Capehart read that Alabama's Birmingham was constructed in a hurry and they have not had time to improve it."

The same broadcast called Alabama the "darkest" of all the states:

"In no other part of the United States have the colored people suffered and struggled as much as here."

Neither Alabama senator was on hand when that state was first mentioned. So Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) jumped into the breach, declaring it was all a "contemptible, damnable lie."

Referred To As "Traitors"

Then Sen. Hill (D) of Alabama arrived and denounced the broadcast all over again. He said it was "base slander" of his state.

By the time Capehart got around to New England and Texas, the whole chamber was fuming.

"This whole thing is saturated with malice," shouted Sen. Connally (D-Tex). "They are saboteurs. They are traitors to their country."

Sen. Brewster (R-Me) said the author of the broadcasts "is worthy of language I don't think this chamber would entertain."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said he had been in touch with the state department and was told a preliminary report would be submitted to the senate today. It was Smith who led the winning battle earlier this year for full authorization of the voice programs, previously carried out under wartime White House authority.

STOCK MARKET LIFTS TO HIGH LEVEL BUYS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 27—The stock market today advanced to the highest level since August 1946 when a heavy rush of buying lifted prices a few cents to more than $1 a share.

Demand was fast enough for a time to put the high-speed ticker tape one minute behind dealings on the floor of the exchange. Nearly half a million shares changed hands in the first hour of business but activity later slackened.

Buying was based largely on optimistic interpretations of the General Motors wage settlement. Many security dealers hoped that as a result strike-bound Chrysler Corp. would settle its differences with labor.

CLEVELAND, May 27—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway company reported today that a new coal loading record was set Tuesday with the loading of 6,420 cars, or 242 more than the previous record of 6,178 on April 29.

STATE PLANS TO BEGIN WORK ON BIS BRANCH

Welfare Department Committee Here Today To Study Needs at Scioto Plant.

Preliminary work to convert a portion of the Scioto Ordnance Plant into a training school for boys will get under way this summer, the state welfare department said today.

The announcement made in Columbus coincided with a visit here by a subcommittee of the seven-member advisory board of the Lancaster Boys' Industrial school to inspect the ordnance plant site.

The advisory committee appointed by Gov. Thomas J. Herbert is to make recommendations to State Welfare Director Charles L. Sherwood on policy to be followed in development and administration of the Marion boys' training school.

Members Here Today

The subcommittee here today included advisory committee chairman, Judge Lloyd Bennett of Eaton in Preble county, Dr. Herschel Nisonger, Professor Walter Reckless, both of Ohio State university and Col. Harold Hays, superintendent of the Lancaster Industrial school.

The training school here will be operated as an adjunct of the Lancaster institution.

The committee was to make a first hand inspection of the 1,244-acre site which several of the advisory committee had not yet seen, welfare department officials said.

Check on Needs

The committee was to check on the probable area needed to be fenced in preparatory to submitting its recommendations to the welfare director. Also to be checked on was selection of one of the various administration area buildings for early rehabilitation to house maintenance men who will work on development of the site.

A study of the fence at the U. S. reformatory at Chillicothe was made last week by the committee. It is planned to erect a detention fence similar to the one there. Bids on the fence are to be received and work is expected to get under way within the next 60 days.

The department has $100,000 available to get the project going and plans to ask the legislature to appropriate $1,000,000 to complete the work.

Quits Bucyrus Union Over CIO Red Issue

Special to The Star

Uhl's resignation came upon his return from a conference board meeting of locals from General Electric plants in New York City.

ABDULLAH IN JERUSALEM IS HAILED AS KING

Fierce Fighting Continues as Next Step Toward Truce Is Awaited.

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, May 27—The Jewish army said today it wiped out an Egyptian advance position northeast of Gaza, on the coastal plain below Israel.

At Jerusalem Arab Legionnaires and Egyptians attacked in the New City, King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan visited the old Walled City and was hailed by Arabs as "king of Jerusalem."

A Haganah unit struck at Beit Hanoun, four miles northeast of Gaza in Arab territory, killed 30 Egyptians and seized or destroyed three heavy guns of the Egyptian artillery, the Israeli communique said. It added a great number of light arms were captured.

The communique said Jewish planes last night lashed at Arab positions in the Ramallah sector, northwest of Jerusalem, and at positions around the Holy City itself. Other planes attacked Arab concentrations and artillery emplacements near Kfar Biddu, along the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road, from which shelling had been directed at a Jewish settlement, the communique said.

Attack from Outskirts

Arab forces paced by Egyptians and including Arab legionnaires and irregulars mounted an attack from the outskirts of bloody Ramat Rahel, between Bethlehem and Jerusalem, against Jewish positions in the New City of Jerusalem, Arab officials in Cairo said. They struck at the Katamon, Talpiyot, Mekor Haim and Upper Bagna sectors.

Inside the Old City, where Arab Legionnaires continued to blast away at a thin remaining line of Haganah machinegun posts along the south wall, King Abdullah prayed at the Holy Sepulchre church, Calvary and the Mosque of Omar, three of the holiest shrines of Christendom and Islam.

In the north, the Jewish communique said, Haganah troops counter-attacked the Arabs near Gesher, south of the Sea of Galilee, and occupied a key point. Samakh and Shaar Hagolan near the South Galilee coast were shelled during the night without casualties, the bulletin said.

Associated Press Correspondent James M. Long reported from Tel Aviv that the Israelis, in "operation broom," have swept exposed northern Galilee clear of Arabs, beating back Syrian and Lebanese invasion drives in counter-thrusts across the frontiers. The dispatch said the Jews now occupy western Galilee, which the United Nations partition plan mapped out as Arab territory.

Await Next Truce Step

Arab rejection of the United Nations cease fire plea aroused grave concern among its delegates. The critical question: what will the next step be?

One anonymous spokesman for a big power delegation predicted the UN security council would take strong action. He said the organization had gone too far in its effort to bring peace to the Holy Land to back down now.

Strong action might include diplomatic and economic sanctions and even the sending of an international force to Palestine.

Warren R. Austin, the U.S. delegate at Lake Success, said the situation was so serious it required careful consideration of his government. The U.S. state department has already sent about two dozen C-47 transport planes to Cyprus to evacuate American citizens from the middle east in case the need arises.

The political committee of the Arab League in Amman informed the security council it would bargain over terms for ending the Palestine warfare. The committee gave the council 48 hours to submit the terms.

Efforts continued in London between American and British diplomats to work out a plan for ending the war in Palestine. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the house of commons he was pursuing a policy to end hostilities, but declined to give out any details.

VOTE TO CALL FOR M'ARTHUR

Senate Committee Wants His Views on Situation in Far East.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 27—The senate appropriations committee today voted to request Gen. Douglas MacArthur to return to the United States to testify on the Far Eastern situation.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) announced the committee's action at the end of a short closed-door session. The vote was 17 to 2.

MacArthur is supreme commander of allied forces in the Far East with headquarters at Tokyo.

Bridges said Senators Saltonstall (R-Mass) and Reed (R-Kas) voted against requesting MacArthur's return. Senator Green (D-RI) voted present and Senator Ball (R-Minn) was out of town and did not vote. Senators McCarran (D-Nev) and O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) voted "yes" by proxy.

Senator Wherry (Neb), acting Republican leader and a committee member, offered the motion to request MacArthur to return. Wherry said politics wasn't involved so far as he is concerned.

MacArthur has said he would accept the Republican presidential nomination if it were offered him.

Wherry's was seconded by Senators Ferguson (R-Mich) and Tydings (D-Md).

Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, MacArthur's successor in command of the Philippine area at the start of the Pacific war, has petitioned congress to seek MacArthur's views. Wainwright heads a veterans' group boosting the supreme allied commander for the GOP presidential nomination.

Marengo Junior Wins Boys' State Contest

Tom Wood, junior at Marengo High school, won the competitive test given by the Marengo Post of the American Legion to decide a delegate to Boys' State which will be held at Ohio Wesleyan university June 12 to 22 inclusive.

Four boys took this test which was given by members of the local Legion Boys' state committee, Leonard Walls, history and government teacher, and Frank Shugert. Others taking the test were Omar Deel, Bill McLain and Jack Kanable. Deel's paper was so nearly equal to that of Wood that it was only after earnest consideration of the papers and the activities of the two boys that Wood was declared the winner, and awarded the prized position, committee members said.

Circus in Mansfield After 2 Shows Here

Late last night the Cole Bros. circus folded its tents like the Arabs and not so silently stole away on the Erie railroad to Mansfield for another show today.

Despite ideal weather the circus tent last night was only two-thirds filled and the sideshow barkers were hard pressed to lure a thin trickle of customers to see "the lady battle with the lion" on the inside of the "mighty museum of wonders."

The circus arrived here late yesterday morning on the Pennsylvania railroad from Lima and was 40 minues late getting the matinee show started.

The evening performance went off with split second timing, however, and the elephants, clowns, wire walkers, pretty girl bareback riders, and the man on the flying trapeze held all the lure of old. Youngsters of both six and 60 strained their eyes so as not to miss a minute of the miracles of the "never never land" of the circus.

AUTO DEMAND TAXES OUTPUT

2,000,000 Cars Produced This Year, Yet Order Piles Fail To Dwindle.

By DAVID J. WILLKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT, May 27—The nation's car industry has produced more than 2,000,000 vehicles so far this year but the unfilled order pile isn't shrinking a bit.

The 2,000,000th vehicle to come from the assembly lines this year was assembled yesterday. Whether it was a passenger car or a truck hasn't been determined but nearly 575,000 of all the vehicles made in 1948 have been trucks. Close to 100,000 of the remainder were shipped to foreign markets.

So the number of passenger automobiles available for distribution among some 5,500,000 persons who want new cars has not been very large.

But for the materials shortages and labor troubles the industry has encountered during the first five months of the year the 1948 production total to date would have been closer to 2,500,000 vehicles and a 5,500,000 total for the year would have been a certainty.

May Output Small

Instead of moving steadily toward a half-million-units a month output, however, the factories have been plagued again by numerous stoppages. The current month's output volume probably will be the smallest the industry has had in nearly two years. Authoritative estimates place the indicated May output in the United States at about 220,000 passenger cars and 110,000 trucks.

Among the things that cut deeply into car and truck output so far this year were an industrial gas shortage in the manufacturing area; steel curtailments due to the coal mining walkout; General Motors' one week shutdown attributed to materials shortages; the Ford shutdown for model change-overs and the Chrysler strike.

None of these production handicaps was foreseen last Jan. 1.

But if further work interruptions can be avoided and a reasonable supply of steel and pig iron can be had, the factories may still equal the production volume of last year. That will mean a 1948 output of close to 4,800,000 cars and trucks.

Fords Greatly Changed

A sharp upsurge in demand undoubtedly will follow the introduction of new models this year. First to show 1949 models will be Ford, to be followed some months hence by Chevrolet and Plymouth in the volume price field. The new Fords are so greatly changed that many motorists who were able to get 1946 and later models undoubtedly will be back in the market for the 1949 units.

The new Fords are to be shown by dealers on June 18, probably with slightly higher price tags. Chevrolet has not yet even admitted a 1949 model is in the making, but it is pretty well understood one will be rolling from the assembly lines well before the year's end.

Industry experts are agreed that the average individual placing an order for any popular priced new car today in the normal way hasn't a chance for delivery within the next 12 months. The would-be buyer able and willing to turn in a late model used car at a low allowance might get a new one within a few weeks.

So, too, might the individual with influential factory connections. Otherwise his only chance to get a new car within a year would be to buy it at a high mark-up in a used car lot.

The mark-ups, of course, are increasing as the vacation season approaches. They range all the way from $500 to more than $1,500 above list price, depending upon the make and model of the car involved.

Caledonia Alumni Meet at School

Approximately 120 members and guests attended the annual meeting of the high school alumni of the Caledonia school Saturday night at the school building. Dinner was served by the Caledonia Circle of King's Daughters. Special honor was given classes of 1948, 1943, 1938, 1923 and 1898. A memorial service was held.

Harry Whiteman of Marion, Scotch entertainer during World War II, was a guest and there was a musical program. Informal talks were given by a number of the members.

Officers for the coming year were elected. They are: Robert Clark, president, Ramon Cox, vice president, Mrs. Pearl Coldwell, secretary and Mrs. Annabelle Gandert, treasurer. All are from the Caledonia community. Walter Lyon, president for 1947-48, presided for the meeting. The senior class colors of blue and gold were used to carry out a decorative theme.

Between 1939 and 1947, the average weekly wage of American factory employes was doubled.

Whose Nose Gets Cut?

UNANIMOUS approval of a resolution by members of the Railway Labor Executives' association to give the federal government full and complete control of the nation's railroads is a puzzling action.

Could it be that the union leaders have done it in an attempt to frighten railroad management?

If so, could it be that the union leaders may have frightened their own membership more than they have frightened railroad management?

Does anyone believe the majority of railroad workers would prefer to be government employes?

These are among the questions raised but not answered by the resolution.

Public ownership of railroads is a possibility, of course. It has been a possibility for many years. Public operation was experimented with from January, 1918, through February, 1920, when the government operated all railroads as a single system, at a net cost to the U.S. treasury of $1,123,500,000.

Many thoughtful persons have explored the possibilities, but always have reached the conclusion that the advantages of government ownership were offset by the disadvantages. And none of them has been able to make a satisfactory rebuttal to the railroads' argument that if they could set their rates in accordance with costs of operation and be relieved of some of the restrictions of government control, the case for government ownership would disappear.

The last time the Railway Labor Executives association asked for government ownership was in 1935, when railroad management wanted to cut wages to stave off bankruptcy in the depression. Nothing came of the move at that time, though legislation was introduced in congress to carry out the union leaders' resolution. It looked as though they were in danger of cutting off their nose to spite their face. It looks pretty much the same way in 1948.

100 Years Old and Going Strong

TO OUR neighbor, The Morrow County Sentinel, goes our sincere congratulations on its 100th anniversary. Hale and hearty after a century of activity which no doubt included trials and tribulations which beset all newspapers at one time or another, there is every indication that the close of the next hundred years will find The Sentinel still going strong and in step with progress.

The Sentinel's centennial edition, dated today, is a publication of exceptional interest and merit, filled with historical material which will be read with much enjoyment not only by residents of the community which The Sentinel serves, but by persons anywhere who are fortunate enough to see a copy.

The Sentinel has a record for which its publishers and Morrow county can be justifiably proud. It has won recognition as one of Ohio's best weekly newspapers and better still, has won enduring popularity and respect in the community which it has served so well throughout the years.

Palestine Realities

THE ARABIAN decision apparently is to play out the military string in Palestine. The Arabian troops that have invaded the Holy Land will continue to fight, with the aim of destroying the new state of Israel and driving out the Jews. The United Nations has been spurned.

The Arabian invaders will fight Israel with the help of outside interests, principally British. And they will do it against increasing resentment of other outside interests involved in middle eastern politics—principally the United States and the Soviet Union. Both have given diplomatic recognition to Israel. Middle eastern politics and petroleum are making strange bedfellows.

The United States, which took its cue from Britain's famous Balfour declaration, is in no mood to recant. It still favors establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine, regardless of Britain's about-face. When the time comes for congress to authorize expenditures under the Marshall plan, it will be surprising if someone in the house or senate does not insist that no funds should be sent to any country whose government is contributing either financial or moral support to any government now sharing in the invasion of Palestine for the purpose of overthrowing the Democratic government of Israel.

Restoring an Inalienable Right

UNDER a new NLRB ruling, employers have the right to assemble their employes on company time and advise them not to join a union, provided the speech contains no coercion or promises of benefit.

The ruling was made under the "free speech" clause of the Taft-Hartley act which rescinded a 1946 NLRB ruling to the effect that it was unfair labor practice for an employer to make an anti-union speech.

In reversing the 1946 ruling, the NLRB is carrying out congress' instructions. It is no tribute to the board that congress itself finally had to guarantee freedom of speech as provided under the first amendment of the Constitution.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

CIO-PAC Threats of Little Harm to Congressmen.

THE Dunn survey, which has been extraordinarily right so often, has made an analysis of the primaries, not to discover candidates for the presidency but rather what happened to members of congress who voted for the Taft-Hartley act.

It will be remembered that the CIO and the PAC and even some AFL unions threatened to extirpate members of congress who voted for this measure. They threatened to drive them out of political life. They called the Taft-Hartley bill a slave law and the Communists conducted a bitter propaganda against all who favored the act.

SOKOLSKY

It will also be recalled that the reason that Harold Stassen thought that he might be extraordinarily successful in Ohio was that he was certain that "labor" would oppose Senator Taft because of the Taft-Hartley bill. He modified his attitude toward the bill in Ohio on the assumption that Taft would have to support it and Stassen could question its validity.

So 92 members of congress who voted for the Taft-Hartley bill came up for renomination and this is the Dunn survey report on the subject:

Voted for Taft-Hartley law—

1. Members of congress seeking renomination, 92; number winning, 87; number losing (for all causes), 5.

2. Members of congress opposed by CIO-PAC in primary elections, 19; elected, 17; defeated, 2X.

(X) Pennsylvania (1); Florida (1).

There were 14 additional primary election contests in which CIO-PAC failed to oppose members of congress who voted for the Taft-Hartley law.

Area Covered

This report covers Illinois, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, and Florida.

In this connection, it is interesting to note that in the advisory nationwide poll of daily newspaper editors made for the Collier's prizes, 42 editors voted for Congressman Hartley for first choice and 30 for second choice, for the prize which that magazine gives annually for the most constructive member of the house of representatives. The highest number of votes in that poll were 47 for Speaker Joe Martin for first choice and 42 for him for second choice. In a word, in this poll, Congressman Hartley came second, which proves that his unpopularity does not appear in the facts. These editors represent every shade of opinion in the country and many of them must have been Democrats.

Now, the value of all this is that it is an index to public opinion about labor matters. Too often we accept as public opinion the violent articulations of pressure groups who are able to overwhelm us with their vehemence. But there is a good, factual, inescapable public opinion in the United States which makes itself felt in elections and in the responses to politicians, particularly to members of congress when they come home among their own people.

Public Opinion Counts

It is this public opinion that really counts and that results in such political overturns as 1932 and 1946. It is this silent response to the challenge of the needs of the country that the Republicans are counting upon to bring them to victory. Similarly, Henry Wallace is counting on it to produce a huge protest vote from those who, while anti-Communist, will nevertheless vote for him as a protest against the Truman administration and its confusions and uncertainties. The poll of editors, made by Collier's for the use of their prize committee and not made public until it appeared in this column, is particularly useful as providing a spontaneous index to the attitude of the moment.

How About Opening the Other Hand?

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, May 27, 1938.

Marion became one of the important points in connection with night-long rioting at the Goodyear Tire & Rubber plant at Akron as Governor Davey made this city his temporary headquarters. He arrived here at 11:30 the night before and did not leave Hotel Harding until noon enroute to Bowling Green and Toledo for political rallies.

H. E. Cook, president of the Second National Bank of Bucyrus, was elected president without opposition by 600 delegates to the Ohio Bankers' convention at Dayton. Michael C. O'Brien of the Fahey Banking Co., R. E. White, F. E. Guthery and Wilbur Pfeiffer of the National City Bank & Trust Co. attended the meeting.

Mrs. L. C. Lindenberg was installed as president by Mrs. Walter A. Shealy, a past president of the City P.-T. A. at a meeting of the Olney Avenue P.-T. A.

Thirteen seniors received diplomas at the annual commencement exercises of the Green Camp High school. Dr. Guy Morse Bingham of Washington, D. C. spoke on "Playing the Game." The seniors were: Jean Beaver, Arthur Bish, Finley Bowling, Troy DeLong, Bernice Jeffers, Pauline Klinefelter, Vincent Martin, Paul Massie, Dale Northup, Estill Porter, Mary Uncapher, Bonnie Wasserbeck and Robert Wolbert.

Miss Louise Cunningham, a guest, spoke on "Wild Flowers" at a meeting of Bethlehem Grange.

Mayor R. F. Highly presided, and civic, patriotic, church and school groups took part in the opening ceremonies of the Caledonia branch library in the council chamber of the town hall.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

It was Sunday, May 27, 1928.

Mrs. J. Spaulding was hostess to Mrs. B. F. Shurz and Mrs. George Gooding of Marion and Mrs. M. A. Porter of Green Camp in her cottage "The Bob-O-Link" at Russell's Point.

Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Jolley and sons James and Preston of Akron were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jolley of South Seffner avenue.

Friends and relatives made a surprise call on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ullom at their home east of Marion in celebration of their twelfth wedding anniversary.

Seven patriotic organizations were represented in the annual Memorial service of the G.A.R. held at the First United Brethren church. The speaker was Rev. W. H. Howard.

Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete who was living in Marion county, went in as a pinch hitter for the Marion Eagles baseball team at Lincoln park in the eighth inning of a game against the Olds Motor nine of Toledo and turned the tide for the Marion team by hitting out a home run. The Marion team was trailing at that time 8 to 6 and finally won 9 to 8.

Wisdom in French Stand

By Walter Lippmann

IN the long run we shall be glad, rather than annoyed, that the French government has taken a firm stand against the immediate formation of a western German state with its capital at Frankfurt. For the economic advantages which might be gained by establishing such a German government are slight and theoretical compared with the divisions and disorders which would surely be caused inside Germany and throughout Europe.

LIPPMANN

The Truman administration is in no position to deal with the consequences. It is unprepared to deal with them. In a very real sense it has no moral right to take so grave a commitment in an election year, and to present the incoming Republican administration, which would probably take a different line, with an accomplished fact.

To establish a German government in Frankfurt is to invite the Russians to establish another German government in Berlin. Now it is often said by supporters of the Frankfurt project that the Russians intend to establish a German government anyway.

Perhaps. Thus far the Russians have been astute enough not to be the first to do this. We ought to be as astute as they are. For whoever is the first to establish a German government will be held responsible for the partition of Germany.

The one who waits will become the champion of German unity. And as only the Russians can give the Germans unity without war, they will be the certain gainers and we the certain losers in the maneuver.

Our German government in Frankfurt will have gotten everything from us that we have to give it—the economic subsidy and political power and the abdication of military government. All its other prospects will depend on a political understanding with Russia and upon its trade with eastern Europe. We shall have played all our aces. The Russians will still be holding theirs.

First Result

Immediately, the consequence of establishing a Frankfurt government will be to make our position in Berlin exceedingly difficult to convince the American people, and impossible to convince the French people, that the right to stay in Berlin is a shooting matter. It is doubtful whether the administration is prepared to meet this summer a major crisis over Berlin.

We are in Berlin because Berlin is the capital of Germany. If Berlin ceases to be the capital of Germany, and if "Germany" is western Germany (minus the French zone) then we have no more reason to be there than we have to be in Dresden or Leipzig.

The government which we are proposing to establish in Frankfurt is described as a federal government. But it is to be created by a constitutional assembly elected by popular suffrage throughout western Germany, and the elections are to be conducted by centrally directed political parties.

No genuine federal system was ever created that way, and the German constitution which our officials have in mind would in fact set up a unitary state, which delegated certain of its powers to the constituent states. For the ultimate possessor of German sovereignty would be national parties under unified leadership, and the power reserved to the states could be withdrawn whenever these centralized parties wished to withdraw them.

Question of Election

It is, moreover, the acme of unwisdom on our part, so it seems to me, to precipitate national election in Germany this year. They are almost certain to become an aggravated version of the Italian elections, an unseemly and increasingly reckless competition by the victors for the favor of the German Nationalists and the German Communists.

The issue in these elections will be whether the Germans have the most to gain by turning to the east, or to the west, or by playing both ends against the middle. One would think that responsible statesmen would do their best to avert and postpone, rather than to precipitate, a furious electoral battle in the heart of Europe at this time.

It is folly to think that in the turmoil of such an election, as a matter of fact, of a series of elections, Germany will become a productive member of the European community. The elections will arouse passions in Germany, and cause tension throughout Europe, which are quite incompatible with confidence and economic recovery.

The French are, of course, serving their own national interest in opposing this project. But the French are the neighbors of Germany, and there can be no peace and no unity in Europe if the French national interest is disregarded. There can be no settlement in Europe which the French do not believe in and do not support.

Due to the large number of cases to be considered the grand jury may not return its findings until Tuesday, conducting its investigation of charges today and Friday and recessing over the holiday weekend before making its report.

First case to be given the jury by Prosecutor Reed was the manslaughter charge against George M. McCloskey of Marion, resulting from the automobile crash near Claridon last fall, fatal to four Marion youths. State Highway Patrolman W. H. Culp and former police prosecutor John Watters are among the six witnesses to be called by the prosecutor.

The Sentinel, Morrow County Newspaper, Observes One Hundredth Anniversary Today

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, May 27 — The Morrow County Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published here, today completed its one hundredth year of continuous publication. The paper was founded in 1848 by David Watt shortly after the birth of Morrow county.

During the last 90 years members of the Griffith family have been publishing and editing the paper. John W. Griffith came from the office of the "Shield and Banner" in Mansfield to work as a printer in the Sentinel office in the fifties. He purchased the paper from William P. Dumble, the second owner, in March of 1857.

Since that time Mr. Griffith's son Harry, and his grandson, the late Earl Griffith, former secretary of state of Ohio, have served as editors and publishers. At the present time Mrs. Earl Griffith is the publisher and Terry Griffith, a great grandson of John Griffith, is the editor and manager.

Congratulations

Letters of congratulations were received from Sen. Robert A. Taft, Sen. John W. Bricker, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert and Cong. Frederick C. Smith.

In his congratulatory letter to Mrs. Griffith, Senator Taft said "the Morrow County Sentinel has survived because it has been a newspaper with a character and a personality—it has met the responsibility of newspapers in interpreting accurately to people the events of the day—the character of the paper has reflected the character and principles of those who published it. I knew Earl Griffith and had the utmost respect for his integrity and ability."

Congressman Smith in offering his congratulations to the publisher of the Sentinel wrote "having had occasion to look over some of the earliest editions of the Sentinel, I was struck with the consistency of the Republican policy pursued throughout its life. Well may the Griffith family be proud of this record."

The paper first was called the "Whig Sentinel." With Volume 7, No. 1, the name was changed to "The Mt. Gilead Sentinel." On July 13, 1859, with Volume 12, No. 1, the name was changed to "Morrow Sentinel" and the present name was adopted several months later.

While not the oldest paper in the county by only a few months, the Sentinel is the oldest paper to be in continuous publication. The Democratic Messenger, the first paper in the county went down under the editorship of George S. Sharpe and the county was for some time "without an exponent of Democracy." Later the Messenger was revived under the name Union Register.

Centennial Issue

The centennial issue published today, in addition to carrying congratulatory letters, reproductions from issues in 1849 and a review of the history of Morrow county, contains interesting excerpts from the news of the day in other years.

Mention is made in an excerpt from the issue of Oct. 13, 1858, of an intense editorial rivalry existing between the Sentinel and its Democratic rival the "Messenger."

Exchange between Editor J. W. Griffith of the Sentinel and the rival editor apparently grew quite heated at times. The excerpt noted carries Griffith's reply to a Messenger editorial. Griffith leads off with "The editor of the Messenger appears anxious to prove a reply from us to some of his low dirty slang in regard to ourself—when we find we can not conduct our journal in a decorous and gentlemanly manner without indulging in low personal slang, we will abdicate the tripod and transfer the Sentinel to some person whose taste and feelings run in this channel." Griffith then proceeds to wash his hands of the matter.

Trends of the Times

Trends of the times as gleaned from early issues are scattered throughout the Centennial issue. Prices then offer an interesting contrast to the present day cost of living. Market conditions in 1858 according to an issue of March 19 of that year indicated butter was eight cents a pound; hams at six and a quarter cents a pound; coffee seven and eight cents; wheat 68 cents a bushel; oats, 20 cents; corn, 25 cents; an 89 acre farm was appraised at $1,150.

A society item of Jan. 6, 1898, read, "A party of ten young men enjoyed a social session on New Year's night and cracked fresh jokes and stories around a banquet table spread at the Kandy Kitchen. All the delicacies of the season were provided."

The Sentinel's joke column (1858 version) carried such mirth provokers as:

"A father called his son into a crowded stage—"Ben-jam-in," and,

"Sir, said a young wife to her husband, a few days after marriage, you were honest enough to tell me your chimney smoked but why didn't you tell me that you smoked yourself?"

The Sentinel won prizes at the Ohio State Newspaper show both this year and last. In 1947 it took more prizes than any other weekly in the state. Winning first prize in the show in 1936 as "Best in Community News" the judge who made the award said that it "Should be a model and guide for every weekly publisher in the state," and that "Subscribers get more for their money."

SURPRISE CANDIDATE. Surprising Nevada Democrats, Mrs. Eugenia Clair Smith, whose late husband's coffee dealings make her worth a reported $7,000,000, descends the capitol steps at Carson City after filing for Nevada's lone seat in the House of Representatives. Mrs. Smith has elaborate homes at Reno, Lake Tahoe and near Los Angeles.

NUMBER OF '65 VETS LISTED AS ONLY 52

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 27—The fast thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic will number less than three score on Memorial day.

Rolls of the Veterans administration disclose that, as of May 26 there were only 52 known survivors among those who wore the blue in the war between the states.

The youngest is 97-year old James Grigsom of Chicago; the oldest is Albert Hard, of Rochester, N. Y., who will be 106 next July 15.

Most of the GAR veterans receive about $120 monthly from the government, a few get less.

Ohioans on the pension rolls are: John R. Bennett, 103, Waynesfield; Daniel Clingsman, 101, Wauseon; John Crate, 102, Atwater; Alvin Smith, 103, Youngstown.

CLEVELAND, May 27 — A $100,000 suit was filed against Harris-Seybold Co. by the CIO United Electrical Workers union yesterday. STEEL MEN PLAN AHEAD

The 56th General Meeting of American Iron and Steel Institute is being held this week in New York City. It is an occasion upon which steel men meet to discuss major problems of mutual interest . . . growing steel capacity, supplies of raw materials and technical research.

Today's research goes deep into the secrets of the iron atom. It embraces every product the industry makes. It is carried on inside and outside the industry with the cooperation of research organizations, technical schools, colleges and universities all over the country.

A complete list of the problems for which the steel industry is seeking answers would run into the thousands. But here is a bare handful of projects that are currently under way: Testing behavior of steel at 70 below zero . . . searching for material substitutes to eliminate dependence on imports . . . use of oxygen to make more steel in existing facilities . . . testing locomotive axles, railroad rails to provide even better, even safer transportation . . .

It all adds up in the long run to better steel, or better ways to use steel products, or a way to produce more steel with present equipment.

It adds up to progress in steel for the benefit of all.

AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE
350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

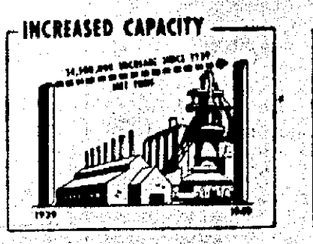
TO SERVE YOU EVEN BETTER

Record breaking peacetime production is only part of steel's story. For the industry's contributions to our economy go much deeper than that.

For instance: Steel wages are at record totals; Steel consuming industries are operating at high levels; Steel capacity is being further increased and improved; Steel prices are relatively low.

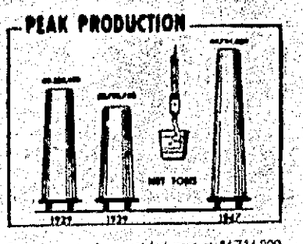
Here is Steel's record at a glance:

INCREASED CAPACITY



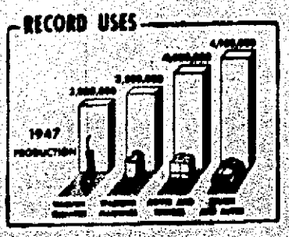
Steel's biggest peacetime expansion has been under way for three years. Total cost will exceed $1,700,000,000 by the end of 1949. Steelmaking capacity will then have been increased by about 14,500,000 tons since 1939. Steel capacity is now so large as to tax available raw materials.

PEAK PRODUCTION



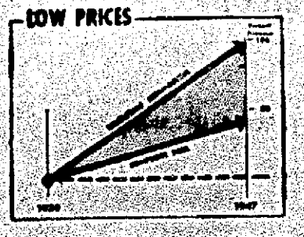
Peacetime record was set last year at 84,734,000 tons of steel. U. S. production was about 33 per cent of world total. First three months of 1948 was at even higher rate with production at annual rate of 88,800,000 net tons of steel.

RECORD USES



Large steel production in 1947 made possible peak levels of production and employment in steel consuming industries. Production records were set last year in trucks, washing machines, ranges, stoves and many farm equipment, even records in other fields.

LOW PRICES

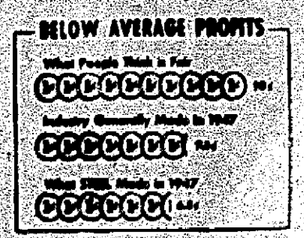


Average price of steel has gone up about 40 per cent in the last nine years. Prices of most other metals, general commodities, foodstuffs and the cost of making steel have risen far more than the price of steel.

HIGH WAGES

Last year the $20,000 wage earners employed by steel companies were paid almost a billion-and-a-half dollars in total earnings, or, in January 1948, they earned an average of over $60 per week, double the average weekly pay in 1939, and well above the average for all industries.

BELOW AVERAGE PROFITS



The public believes that a ten cent profit on the sales dollar would be "fair." Steel profits last year were 6.3 cents—well below what the public thinks is fair. Profits last year were LESS than the amount spent by the industry for expansion and improvement.

There are more than 90 member companies of the Institute with plants in 189 American communities. They produce 96 percent of the country's steel.

EX-NAZI HEAD HAILS U.S. PLAN

Schacht, from German Prison, Sees Marshall Program as "Excellent Start."

By DON DOANE
Associated Press Writer

LUDWIGSBURG, Germany, May 27—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Hitler's reichsbank president, says the Marshall plan is "an excellent start" toward rebuilding Europe's economy.

Likewise, he favors recent moves toward a federated union of European nations.

All in all, the old Nazi financier thinks "the western world is moving entirely in the right direction."

"And for this I give the greatest credit to American politics," he said.

Schacht made these statements in an interview in his prison hospital room where he is serving an eight-year prison sentence given him by a German court for his support of Nazism.

He gets a new hearing in June, and he says he is confident of acquittal this time.

(A U. S. military government court yesterday denied a plea by Schacht's attorney for his release under western Germany's new habeas corpus law. Although Schacht was sentenced by a German court he has been in U. S. custody.)

Calls Charge "Fantastic"

"I've got lots of new evidence," Schacht said. "It is a fantastic injustice that I should be convicted of Nazism when I actually risked my life from 1938 on to oppose Hitler. I turned against him the minute I realized he wanted war."

Although he is 71 years old and has spent most of his prison term in the hospital, Schacht was alert and vigorous. He was not confined to his bed.

Hospital attendants had warned he might refuse to talk because "he's been pretty cranky lately." But he talked freely and was bitter only when discussing his conviction.

DR. HJALMAR SCHACHT

Despite his age and long jail term, Schacht plainly harbors hope of returning to a position of financial influence.

"I am looking already ahead of the Marshall plan," he said. "In my present situation I am not able to discuss this problem, but I hope to get my rehabilitation soon. Then I would be glad to help in economic fields."

Schacht showed he was not very favorably impressed with the economic planning of the German officials now directing western Germany's effort to come back.

Schacht "Vastly Overrated"

American and British authorities think otherwise.

"One of the main troubles with Europe now is its adoption of Schacht's barter system and financing," said one of the top American financial advisors. "If it hadn't been for Schacht he would have a much easier time putting Germany back on her feet.

"We are not interested in his ideas now or any other time—he is a vastly overrated man."

Schacht gets more food packages than any other prisoner in this Nazi prison camp. Most come from Germans—"some of whom I don't even know," the old man said. Hospital attendants said he got 30 food packages from Germans in the first four months of this year. He also got three from the United States—two from "utter strangers" — and two from Switzerland.

Schacht said he shares his packages with other prisoners, "and they share theirs, too."

SEE 1-YEAR LIMIT ON TRADE ACT EXTENDER

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 27—Administration hopes for a longer than one year extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act faded today.

The only question is whether the senate will go along with the house in curbing the President's tariff-making powers.

Democrats promised a "very hard fight"—first for a full three year extension and, if that fails, for a single year extender without the checkreins the house insisted upon by a 234 to 149 vote late yesterday.

Bitter debate preceded the house roll call.

How Ohioans Voted On Trade Act Extension

WASHINGTON, May 27—Seventeen of Ohio's representatives in congress, all Republicans, voted yesterday for a one-year extension of the trade agreements act. The Ohio vote:

Republicans for—Bender, Bolton, Brehm, Brown, Burke, Carson, Clevenger, Elston, Griffiths, Hess, Jenkins, Lewis, McCowen, McCulouch, McGregor, Ramey, Vorys.

Republicans against — Smith, Weichel.

U.S. Rejects Russian Protests About Planes

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 27 — The United States has flatly rejected Russian protests claiming American airplanes have interfered with Soviet shipping in the vicinity of Japan.

The state department said today the U. S. reply to various Soviet notes of protest was delivered to the Russians by the American embassy in Moscow Tuesday.

Oil Company Employe Gets 30-Year Pin

Palmer E. Getz of Upper Sandusky, having completed 30 years of service with the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, recently was presented a pin, emblematic of his years with Sohio, by J. P. Sharkey, division manager of the Marion bulk station.

Getz, who joined Sohio in April, 1918, spent 28 years as a driver and agent for the Upper Sandusky bulk station. In March of 1946, he was transferred to the Tiffin bulk station as a warehouseman.

About a year later, he was transferred to Marion, where he is now employed as a clerk at the Marion bulk station.

Veteran of Two Wars, Another of One War, in Cardington Graduating Class

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON, May 27 — A high school graduating class which can boast a veteran of World War I and II and another of World War II on its class roll received diplomas in commencement exercises at Cardington high school Tuesday night. Among the 39 receiving 1948 high school diplomas was Dalzell R. Maxwell of Columbus, formerly of Cardington, who would have been graduated originally with the class of 1916. The other veteran graduated was Elmer W. Childress of Marion, a former Cardington resident, whose original classmates were graduated in 1943.

Receiving a high honor at the Tuesday night exercises was the class valedictorian, Miss Clara Mae Ruehrmund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ruehrmund of near Marion. She was presented an honor scholarship to Capital university in Columbus by Dr. H. L. Yochum, president of the university, who was the Cardington commencement speaker. She plans a combined college and professional course of education and nursing. Her valedictory subject was "Ourselves."

Commencement Program

Class salutatorian was Kent Curl, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Curl of Cardington, who plans on a college course in chemical engineering. The commencement program included music, processional by Evelyn Fricke, a student of the school; vocal numbers, Kathryn Nybladh, Betty Bennett, Reita Sherman, Jean Campbell, William Maxwell, James Richey, Lawrence Philbrook and Louis Levering; and instrumental, group of seniors. Rev. Karl Diemer of St. John Lutheran church spoke the invocation, Superintendent J. L. Patterson presented the speaker, Principal T. A. Gantz presented the class, Dr. Lowell Murphy, president of the board of education, distributed the diplomas, and Rev. Howard Hammer of the Evangelical United Brethren church gave the benediction.

Dr. Yochum's subject was "What Do You Mean, Higher Education?"

Several other members of the class are planning on college courses, including Mr. Maxwell, Superintendent Patterson stated. The veteran of both World wars will enroll in classes in horticulture at Ohio state university. He is now a superintendent of grounds of an estate in Columbus. In World War I, he served in the infantry overseas, having served previously in the National Guard. He last attended high school in the school year 1913-14. During World War II, he served in the Navy from July 26, 1943, to Dec. 3, that year, then was hospitalized at the veterans hospital at Chillicothe. He completed his American history requirement for high school graduation through the Armed Forces institute, and completed his work through the GED tests.

Mr. Childress, who makes his home at 204 Fies avenue, Marion, left Cardington High school at the end of the school year of 1940-41. He entered the Navy in March, 1943, and received his discharge from service in April, 1946. His history requirement was made up through attendance at night classes at Harding High school in Marion.

A group of 21 seniors, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and Miss Charlotte R. Lewis of the Cardington faculty, were in the east last week visiting Washington, D. C., Mt. Vernon, Annapolis Naval academy, and other points of tourist interest. A highlight of the trip was a view of President Truman just as the high school party arrived in Washington, and the President was leaving on a speaking trip. He went to Pennsylvania last week to speak at a boys' school.

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

THERE are three important points in the agreement General Motors made this week to boost its auto workers' wages.

1. It may show the way for other companies and unions to agree on pay raises without strikes or trouble.

(The U. S. Steel Corporation has flatly refused a pay raise; the Ford Motor Company has suggested a pay cut; and workers are striking against the Chrysler Corp. for higher pay.)

2. So far as government and business officials here know this is the first important agreement tied directly into living costs.

(That means workers are given raises to meet living costs. If those costs go down, the workers get a cut; if they go up, they get another raise.)

James Marlow

3. GM recognizes that workers, besides having to meet living costs, are entitled to pay that will boost their living standards.

In the past couple of years most unions have won pay raises because living costs have risen.

But they weren't tied directly into living costs, in the sense that the pay automatically would go up or down with living costs.

Simply, they were flat raises—because living costs had risen—for a fixed period, like a year or two, with no pay changes in that period.

Yet, a number of firms—although no huge ones like GM—have given raises that were tied in directly with living costs on that up-an-down sliding scale.

But unions have argued for a long time:

If you try to tie in a man's pay directly with living costs, then a worker is always only just about able to make both ends meet.

IT DOESN'T GIVE him any of the money needed for more than just the day-to-day living. For example: saving money to send his children to school or buying special things that are not necessities.

Getting more money than just enough to meet the usual living costs, the unions argue, means a man's living standards are raised. And—

As his living standards go up he can buy more things which, in turn, means more people employed to make those things, which means prosperity.

General Motors has offered its CIO Auto Workers' union both sides of that picture by agreeing to an increase of 11 cents an hour, this way:

1. Eight of the 11 cents to make up for an increase in living costs.

2. The other three cents as an "annual improvement factor to increase the standard of living of workers."

THE CONTRACT IS for two years. In that time the workers may lose some of the eight cents or get more than eight cents, depending on whether living costs in those two years go up or down.

But in that two-year period they will not lose any of the three cents given them to boost their living standards.

Next year, in fact, they'll get another three-cent living-standard raise, no matter what happens to living costs.

Yet, even if the bottom falls out of living costs in the next two years, the GM workers will not lose all of the eight cents they get now as a living cost increase. This is how it works:

GM figures now the straight hourly pay of its average auto worker is $1.50.

WITH THE NEW, total 11-cent raise—eight for living costs, three for living standards—he will now make $1.61 an hour.

Every three months GM and the union will look at the government's figures on living costs.

If they've gone up in the previous three months, the worker will get a living cost raise in addition to their eight-cent living cost raise. But what if living costs have gone down in those three months?

In that case the workers get some of their eight cents taken away but the company agrees never, in the next two years, to take away more than five of the eight cents. So here's where the GM worker will stand:

He's getting $1.50 now, will get three cents this year and another three next year for living standards, a total of $1.56.

To that $1.56 is added eight cents for living costs. Total $1.64. If living costs hit bottom and GM takes back five of the eight cents, leaving the worker three, at the end of two years he'll still be making $1.59.

He Was Positively Negative

Andrei Gromyko has been recalled as chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations.

Gromyko is the man who changed V for Victory to V for Veto.

He spent nearly 10 years in this country and never even learned to say "Maybe."

Gromyko has been in and out of the papers a lot in the last couple of years, mostly on account of being in and out of the UN.

Every time Gromyko didn't agree with something UN did, he got up and left. As a consequence, he has taken more walks than an apartment-house dog.

Whatever you think of Gromyko, you can't call him a yesman.

Traditionally, a diplomat is one who knows how to say the right things. A Russian diplomat is one who knows how to say "No!"

Lifebuoy with its Purifying Ingredient

GETS SKIN CLEANER

STOPS "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

DOCTORS PROVED with 820 scientific tests the truth of this amazing statement...

The cleaner you get your skin, the doctors found, the safer you are from "B.O." (body odor). Any soap will remove all the grime and perspiration you can see—yet leave "invisible dirt" on your skin to form a foothold for "B.O."!

Doctors compared the effects of daily baths with different soaps. The results are amazing! When you bathe with any other leading soap, you are simply not as clean, not as safe from "B.O." as you are when you bathe with Lifebuoy. After 820 scientific tests doctors say Lifebuoy's purifying ingredient makes the difference! And it is this same purifying ingredient that makes Lifebuoy so mild.

Use Lifebuoy daily. It is made from a special oil blend that gives you such an abundant, refreshing lather. Remember: Lifebuoy gives you cleaner skin ... stops "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

It's great to be popular! On your job or on dates you always get along better if you're pleasant to have around. A daily Lifebuoy bath gives you top protection from "B.O."—lasting protection 24 hours a day.

Lifebuoy is used in the homes of 40 million considerate Americans

VOTE ON GALION SCHOOL SITE SET

Special to The Star

GALION, May 27—A decision to give the North school district residents a chance to vote on the site for the new elementary school in that district was reached at a meeting Wednesday night of the Galion board of education and a representative group of citizens of the district. The meeting, it was learned today, was called by the board president, Robert M. Corry. About 65 persons were present.

Mrs. Earle Brooke, president of the North P.-T. A., presided, and then introduced Mrs. Corry. The board president gave a resume of events in the planning for a new elementary school in the district, told of the selling of the bonds, and referred to a petition received earlier this year by the board in protest to the site at Heise park which the board selected earlier in the year for the new North building.

A discussion, for and against the board's selection of the Heise Park site, was heard. This resulted in the appointment of a committee composed of Mrs. John Moreland, A. C. Stover and M. G. Fisher to revise a ballot for residents in the North school district. The committee will set a date for an election.

Restoration of Kenton Train Service Sought

Special to The Star

KENTON, May 27—Petitions asking the public utilities commission of Ohio to order restoration of two passenger trains on the New York Central Railroad through Kenton, from Columbus to Toledo, today were signed by Mayor Loucks B. The petitions are being circulated by five Kenton employes of the railroad.

The trains No. 7 and No. 8 were removed from service March 22 in compliance with an ODT transportation curtailment order given at the time of the coal strike. They have never been restored to service, despite the rescinding of the order, the petition claims.

RESERVE CORPS OPEN FOR TOUR OF DUTY

Members May Volunteer for Active Service.

Announcement of a new Army program whereby certain enlisted Reserve Corps members may volunteer for active duty tours of from 9 to 12 months, has been received from the Second Army headquarters at Fort George G. Meade, Md., by Captain John B. Weaver, unit instructor for the Marion district.

Assignments will be restricted to the zone of the interior and within the Army area which has administrative control, unless the enlisted reservist agrees in writing to serve in another Army area. While no guarantee of an assignment to a particular post, camp or station will be made, every effort will be made to utilize the individual at the place of his choice, the bulletin states.

Enlistment in the regular Army may be accomplished during active duty or within 20 days after the expiration of the tour. Not eligible for active duty under this new program are personnel who have been retired and transferred to the enlisted reserve corps; members of the National Guard and individuals drawing pension, disability allowance, disability compensation, retirement pay benefits or retired pay from the U. S. government.

Complete information regarding the new program may be obtained from the local Military District headquarters or the unit instructor's office at 186 South Main street, Marion.

PART OF TRAIN DERAILED

By The United Press

HURON, May 27—Fifteen cars of a 75-car New York Central freight train were derailed near here at 1 a. m. today, tying up all main line traffic. No one was injured. A NYC spokesman said the freight was heading east and tore up "considerable trackage" when the cars, in the middle of the train, went off the rails. The spokesman said the cause of the derailment was a broken axle on a coal car.

U.S. CIVILIAN IN KOREA SHOT

Occupation Chief Hodge Sees "Critical Days" Ahead for Americans.

By The United Press

SEOUL, May 27—The U. S. Army disclosed today that an American civilian had been wounded slightly by machine gun bullets fired by the Russian-controlled Korean constabulary at a U. S. three-man public works team near the Soviet-U.S. border in Korea.

At the same time, in a letter to U. S. civilians here, Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, occupation commander, predicted that "critical" days lie immediately ahead for Americans here.

The wounded man was Karl Smith, a 45-year-old civilian engineer of Huntington, W. Va., who went unscathed through 30 months of the Pacific war as an Army captain.

Smith was hit four times by small arms fire while he and two other members of a three-man public works team were inspecting a dam less than 100 yards from the border of the 38th parallel. The bullets presumably came from a Soviet-controlled North Korean constabulary.

Doctors said none of the bullets, fired from a 2500-yard range, had penetrated Smith's flesh. He was expected to be hospitalized about six days.

Hodge's remarks, contained in a letter to civilian personnel who have been growing anxious about occupation plans, had no apparent bearing on the incident. But the commander said significantly:

"It is my considered opinion that our most critical days of American effort here lie just ahead of us."

"There have been no orders for withdrawal of U. S. forces from Korea," Hodge said, "since no decision has been made."

Hodge said his command was "streamlining the occupation force to make it more mobile in case withdrawal should be ordered."

Four Minor Blazes Along Railroad Lines

Four minor blazes near the Erie C. and O. and Big Four railroads occurred without property damage in the last 24 hours, Erie Chief Owen Sifritt reported today.

Old ties and bridge framework piled at a vacant lot owned by the Erie railroad near the Erie right-of-way was set ablaze by sparks from a passing locomotive at 11:19 a. m. yesterday. Central station firemen responded.

At 12:30 p. m. a grass fire along the C. and O. north of Bellefontaine was extinguished by Central station firemen, and another at 12:50 near the Marion Power Shovel Co. was quenched by firemen from the West Center street station. Both blazes originated from sparks from passing locomotives.

Firemen from West Center street station and Central station responded to a fire at a Big Four signal tower near Kenton avenue and route 30 when a fusee thrown from a train landed on the tower catwalk at 10:54 p. m.

Romance in France Renewed in Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, May 27—A romance which had its origin in France during the war was nearing culmination with the arrival this week of Mlle Jacqueline de Sommyevre, daughter of Baron and Baroness Jacques de Sommyevre of Paris and Versailles, for a reunion with her fiance, William C. Beer of Bucyrus.

Attorney Beer was in New York Saturday to meet the French liner DeGrase which brought Mlle. de Sommyevre to America. The couple made application in probate court Wednesday for a license to wed, and plan a ceremony the latter part of this week.

Mr. Beer made the acquaintance of his bride-to-be while her father and he were both engaged in liaison work for their respective governments under the judge advocate general's department. Mr. Beer held the rank of captain and Baron de Sommyevre that of major during their association in France.

Mr. Beer has a practice of law here and the couple will establish residence in Bucyrus.

Mt. Victory Memorial Services on Sunday

Special to The Star

MT. VICTORY, May 27—Plans for Memorial day services in Mt. Victory are practically completed according to Commander Joseph Ewing of the Mt. Victory Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 6817 and Walter Thompson, American Legion committee chairman.

All veterans are urged to assemble at the Mt. Victory city hall Sunday at 8 a. m.

Services will begin with a memorial ceremony and decoration of soldiers' graves at Otterbein, Ridgeway and Hale cemeteries in that order.

Following the ceremonies, it is planned that all members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and the Mt. Victory Boy Scout troop will form at the square and will parade to the church services at the Methodist church and the Church of Christ.

Findings Unfavorable To Bucyrus Hospital

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, May 27—City officials responsible for operation of Bucyrus City hospital were scored by the state examiner who presented his findings for the two-year audit period of 1944-46 from the state auditor's department today.

The report showed $26,041.47 in unpaid hospital accounts up to Sept. 20, 1946. The examiners' memorandum stated that "many of the unpaid accounts were incurred by persons not residents of Bucyrus who are able to pay for hospital service. There is no possible excuse for many of the unpaid accounts and officials are subject to criticism for having failed to enforce collections promptly." He further stated "It is not fair to taxpayers and citizens of Bucyrus who pay promptly while others able to pay escape payment of bills."

Only technical findings in small amounts were returned.

The planting was made last Saturday by Mr. Smith in the presence of club members and other interested parties.

Other officers for the club are Robert Hart, Marion Eggleton, Doyle Smith, Roland Sautter, and Randall Schreck.

Take 'Em Out To a Picnic

PATRIOTIC PICNIC . . . Decoration Day fun.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If it's a custom in your family to have your first spring outing on Decoration Day, you may want some new ideas for carry-along food. I recommend that if you are motoring any distance you take some easy-to-eat food, such as fruit or sandwiches, to munch in the car and then pack a more elaborate spread to enjoy at the picnic spot. We always do this in my family because my nephew has the voracious appetite of a ten-ear-old and I have the temperamental sort of stomach that's likely to get hungry at any time. My sister evolved the idea of bringing along a snack to keep us happy before the real spread.

Greatly enjoyed sandwiches we recently made were smoked tongue slices with both prepared mustard and sweet pickle relish. Then we tucked a radish (with the green leaves left on), a carrot and a celery strip into each sandwich bag. Small sandwich bags made of waxed paper which you can buy packaged in almost any store have dozens of uses in and out of the house.

A sandwich spread that has been a favorite in our family for years is one made of yellow cheese, pimento - stuffed olives, walnuts and mayonnaise. If the food grinder happens to be out, we put all the ingredients except the salad dressing into it; if not, we simply mash or grate the cheese and slice the olives and nuts. These are delicious on any kind of bread, white, rye or whole wheat.

For dessert, take along some fruit. Then add a cake or cookies. The "Tomato Sauce Cake" shown in the photograph is something quite new and I thought it was delicious when I tasted it. It has some of the qualities of fruit cake but is much less expensive and quicker to make. It doesn't need a frosting and it is sturdy enough to travel well.

Tomato Sauce Cake

2½ cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ⅛ teaspoon cloves, ½ cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1½ cups canned all-tomato sauce, 1 tablespoon hot water, 1 cup dates (very thinly sliced), 1 cup nuts, coarsely broken, 1 cup raisins, coarsely chopped.

Sift flour, baking soda, cinnamon and cloves. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Add dry ingredients, all-tomato sauce and hot water alternately to first mixture (about 1/3 of each at a time); add fruit and nuts with last addition of flour and mix well. Bake in tube or loaf pan which has been greased and lined with brown or waxed paper which has also been greased, in a moderate (350 degrees F.) oven for 1 hour or until done.

ERIE TICKET AGENTS MEET

Session Held To Prepare for Busy Season of Travel Ahead.

Alfred Fynn of Cleveland, general passenger agent of the Erie railroad, was main speaker of the first annual meeting of the Erie ticket agents and ticket office personnel of the Marion, Ashland, Galion and Mansfield ticket offices, held last night at Hotel Harding.

A general discussion of rules and regulations governing ticket office procedures and operations was held in preparation for the heavy season of summer vacation traffic which will soon begin.

The object of this meeting, as well as similar meetings being held the entire length of the Erie system, is to improve the speed and efficiency of ticket agents and their staffs and to improve relations between rail ticket offices and the public.

Open Forum Meeting

Last night's meeting was in the form of an open forum conference at which ticket agents and ticket sellers brought their problems to the attention of the general passenger agent. Although similar meetings have been held over a period of years for the benefit of train conductors and their ticket collectors, such meetings for ticket agents are a new departure on any railroad, Mr. Fynn said.

Close contact between the Erie and its ticket agents is being maintained, Mr. Fynn said, so that the public in the Marion area, as in other areas, may be sure of the best in information concerning passenger services offered by the Erie. In this connection Mr. Fynn said the Erie is awaiting delivery now on new lightweight all room sleeping cars which will be pulled by new large Erie diesel engines for air conditioned travel during the hot late summer months.

The 16 ticket agents and ticket sellers attending also were brought up to date on the latest features of the annual credit cards for rail travel which are now in use on the Erie and are valid on 45 other railroads. Any person or firm with good credit may contact the local ticket agent of the Erie and arrange for an annual credit card which will permit him to travel anywhere in the U. S. and pay no rail fare enroute, the individual or firm receiving a bill each month for the train fares used during that month. In this way regular travelers are not required to carry sums of money for train fares with them but only need present their credit card at any ticket office of the 45 participating railroads and receive a ticket to any destination on those roads.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 27 — The stock market moved into higher levels on a fairly uniform scale today.

Advances of fractions to a point were well distributed in early dealings, interrupted here and there by scattered losers.

General Motors was at a new high for the year, extending the sizable plus mark chalked up in the preceding session. Willys Overland touched a new peak for the year in active turnover. Chrysler also hit a 1948 peak.

International Telephone went to a new top following disclosure at the annual meeting that the big communications system turned in a profit in the first quarter this year against a loss last year.

Others on the upward march included such heavies as U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Caterpillar, General Electric (at a new high), International Nickel, Pennsylvania Railroad and Boeing Aircraft.

Woodruff Assails Railway Proposal

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 27 — Erie Railroad President Robert E. Woodruff declared yesterday "nationalization of the railroads would be the opening wedge for nationalization of all industry."

Commenting on a proposal by the Railway Labor Executives association, Woodruff said in a statement issued from his office here that "it should be viewed with the greatest alarm by all the people of the United States. It is an attack on all American institutions and ideals."

Nationalization of the rail system, he declared, "would sound the death knell of the free enterprise system."

Brown, pre-convention manager for Taft, said the Ohio senator's backers expected to win an overwhelming majority of the Texas delegation "but we didn't think the vote would be quite so high in view of the great activity in Texas of rival candidates."

The Texas delegates were selected Tuesday.

Richmond's Jim Herndon Gives Up but 3 Hits in Blanking Cubs, 5-0

Wide Curves Baffle Bruins; Leading Muncie Here Tonight

By BILL DIEM

A 19-year-old rookie pitcher from Berwind, W. Va. completely baffled the Marion Cubs at Lincoln park last night, allowing but five men to get on base in pitching a three-hit 5 to 0 shutout.

The right-handed hurler, who throttled the locals with a wide roundhouse curve, was Jim Herndon, the No 1 pitcher of the Richmond Braves' mound staff. The three-hitter was his fourth victory against two setbacks.

He struck out six and walked but a single man.

And while limiting the Cubs to three blows, singles by Manager Zeke Bekeza and Bill Bolduc and a triple by Pete Schnepf, his teammates collected 13 off Frank Marchelli, five of them in the Braves' four-run eighth.

Six Were Doubles

Six of the Richmond blows were good for two oases.

But though the Braves hit Marchelli freely, they didn't get any free tickets to first base and five of them were put out at first when he displayed some fast, heads up fielding. Four were thrown out, Marchelli to Bekeza, and the other from Bekeza to Marchelli.

Muncie's league leading Reds will be here tonight and again Friday night before the Cubs take on Lima in four weekend games—Saturday night, Sunday afternoon and evening, and Monday afternoon.

Score One in 3rd

Richmond scored in the third when Walt Ransom doubled and arrived at the home plate on Tony Mislovich's bobble of a ball hit to him at second base There were two out when the run scored.

And there were two away in the eighth when the Braves got to Marchelli for five hits in a row, scoring four runners

The only other runner to reach base off Herndon besides the three who hit and the one who walked got there on an error, the only Richmond miscue of the game. Shortstop Walt Ransom let a Bekeza grounder get past him, but Zeke was thrown out attempting to steal second.

Thus the Richmond pitching ace faced only four extra men than the 27 required in a nine-inning game.

In the sixth inning, he retired the side on four pitches. Marchelli bunted at the first and was thrown out, Mullin to Brown, Mislovich looked at one and popped up to Ransom, and Castrovince hit his second pitch to Ransom, who threw to first for the putout.

NATS GIVE TRIBE FIRST BLANKING

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 27—The injury-riddled Cleveland Indians today clung to first place in the American league by only two points in the percentage table.

The Tribe, a mere shadow of the explosive club of a week ago, actually trail the Philadelphia Athletics by a half game in won-lost computations, but lead in points .679 to .677.

The Redskins were throttled completely last night as they were shut out for the first time this season, 2 to 0, by the lowly Washington Nationals.

Sid Hudson gave them only one hit in the first seven innings. The Washington right hander allowed two more in the eighth, when the Indians made their only threat of the game, but his replacement, ex-Indian Tom Ferrick, closed the door for the rest of the distance

Without benefit of the booming bats of Joe Gordon and Ken Keltner, both of whom are sidelined with injuries, the Indians failed to advance a runner as far as third base until the eighth in that round they filled the bases with two out, but Manager Lou Boudreau could not drive in the tying or winning runs

The loss was charged to Gene Bearden, his first against three victories, but the rookie southpaw permitted only one earned run, and that was donated the Nats while the Indians performed a double play. The second Washington run was made possible by an error by Allie Clark, filling in for Keltner at third base.

Sports Chatter On This and That

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, O. May 27—Bits of this and that from here and there:

Ever wonder how the $3 50 you pay for an Ohio State university football ticket is cut up? Well, ticket director Oscar Thomas came up with the break down today, and here 'tis:

Federal tax, 58 cents; visiting college's share, $1.46; financing football and other sports, 58 cents; administration, 18 cents; maintenance, 22 cents; band, medical care and training, 18 cents; capital improvements and reserve for future construction, 30 cents.

GLENFORD'S Golden Glen Hursey, three-time all-Ohio cage star, is being watched as a baseball pitcher by the Detroit Tigers. . . . Scout Curtis Hammerbeck has followed the outstanding hurler around for weeks The Amrine Angels, softball team of London prison farm, is doing all right again this year. . . . Latest reports had 'em winning seven of their first nine tilts, with Ed (Fireball) Kelley doing most of the hurling. This is a big weekend for Ohio's colleges . . . The Ohio conference holds its annual meeting and spring sports program at Delaware, and the Mid-American loop does the same at Athens.

A SWEEPING CHANGE in game-management policies, based on environment control, has been adopted by the Ohio Conservation and Natural Resources commission

Commissioner H A. (Buck) Rider said the program will have major objectives of maintaining existing good habitat and restoring, wherever feasible, depleted and insufficient natural environment The land improvement work will be supplemented by a minimum of artificial propagation and stocking.

Such a program has been recommended for years by wildlife technicians in opposition to antiquated methods of dumping unhardened pen-reared birds into coverts which have not been able to support wild-reared birds Good hunting, fellas!

3 CLUBS IN TIGHT RACE FOR AA LEAD

By The Associated Press

You could cover the three leading teams in the American Association with a fielder's glove today. Only a few percentage points separated St. Paul, Indianapolis and Columbus in the scrap for the top rung.

Columbus gained ground in the flag chase by downing Kansas City 8 to 7 last night while both St. Paul and Indianapolis were dropping decisions to Louisville and Milwaukee, respectively. Louisville stopped the Saints 6 to 3, while Milwaukee toppled Indianapolis 8 to 7

In a fourth league game Minneapolis, 3½ games from the top, defeated Toledo 9 to 2

Columbus won in the ninth inning on Mike Natisin's ninth home run of the season with two men on and two out to clinch the final game of the series with Kansas City.

The bases were loaded, one Louisville run already had scored and two were out in the seventh inning when first baseman Jerry Witte cleaned the sacks with a double off St Paul's Charley Samakis, who had just relieved Phil Haugstad To sew up the decision Ed Lavigne singled Witte home and pitcher John McCall coasted the rest of the way to a four hit victory.

An eight-run splurge in the fourth inning gave Minneapolis its series squaring decision over Toledo Otis Clark pitched four hit ball for the Millers

Cardinals Flounder in New York, Blow Big Lead to Lose, 10-7

Giant Explosion in Eighth Proves Polo Grounds Jinx Is Still Working

By The Associated Press

Life in the Polo Grounds is just a series of nightmares for Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cards. As far as he's concerned they can bring back polo any day.

All last year his favored Red Birds fluttered and played dead when they hit New York. It looke like more of the same in 1948.

Dyer's latest experience was enough to try the patience of a saint. His league-leaders were rolling along last night behind a nice 7-2 lead with Howie Pollet, the unbeaten star of both leagues, doing the pitching. It looked like money in the bank.

Hit and Hit

Then the Giants started to break out of their hitting slump. They hit and hit and hit some more. Before the eighth inning was over, eight runs had crossed the plate and the 7-2 lead had changed to a 10-7 deficit.

Bobby Thomson doubled and singled for two hits in the big inning as the Giants chased Pollet, George Munger and Gerry Staley before coasting to a halt for Ken Burkhart. Pollet escaped his first defeat because Dyer called in Munger at the first sign of serious trouble. Munger was felled for his second loss.

Still the Cards show the way with a 1½-game lead over New York, despite last night's disaster.

Across the river in Flatbush, Brooklyn customers were more concerned with immediate problems. Outfielder Pete Reiser and catcher Bruce Edwards were lost for an indefinite period and the club blew another.

Dodgers Sink Again

Shortly before midnight the Dodgers again plunged into the cellar as the result of their 4-1 loss to Chicago and Cincinnati's 8-5 win over Boston.

Willard Ramsoell, the knuckle ball pitcher just recalled from Mobile, was nicked for homers by Bill Nicholson and Hal Jeffcoat in the Dodger defeat. Johnny Schmitz calmed the Brooks with six well-scattered hits.

Outside of a homer by Gil Hodges, the small night crowd of 22,853 had little to cheer.

Hank Sauer's 10th homer helped Cincinnati sneak out of last place. The Reds routed Warren Spahn, Boston's southpaw ace, to come from behind.

The Pittsburgh - Philadelphia night game was postponed because of threatening weather.

AL Race Snarled

Once again the American league race is all snarled up in percentages. Cleveland, actually trailing Philadelphia by a half game in a strict application of the won and lost principle, still holds first place by two percentage points. It's the same old story of a difference in games played.

Cleveland was shut out for the first time this season, collecting only three hits in bowing to Washington, 2-0.

Philadelphia combed the Chicago White Sox, 7-1, in the afternoon behind Joe Coleman's five-hit pitching. It was the fourth straight victory for the rebounding A's.

Detroit "walked" to a 7-3 nod over the New York Yankees when the Yank pitchers passed 10 men. Although touched for 12 hits, Dizzy Trout took the decision from Spec Shea.

It took a double error in the tenth by catcher Less Moss to enable Boston's Red Sox to down the St. Louis Browns, 5-3. Sam Mele doubled in the tenth and scored when Moss, fielding Dom DiMaggio's attempted sacrifice, fumbled the ball and then threw wildly past first base. Joe Dobson was the seven-hit winner over Frank Biscan.

Hogan Favored In Colonial Tourney

By The Associated Press

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 27—The Colonial National invitation golf's all-expense paid junket for the stars, opens its third annual showing today with Ben Hogan a weary but determined favorite.

Hogan, who played 212 holes at St. Louis in capturing the national PGA, was considered the man to beat as a field of 29 professionals and three amateurs moved out in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament that reaches its close Sunday.

RICHMOND IS 6TH BUT SHOULD BE 1ST

By The Associated Press

If baseball games were won with statistics, Richmond's Braves would be a country-mile ahead in the Ohio-Indiana league. As it is, the Braves are sixth—six games behind front-running Muncie.

Richmond's pitching has been the most consistent in the league. In 24 games, its hurlers have allowed an average of a little more than seven hits a game. The Braves have made more hits and less errors than their rivals.

But Manager Ollie Byers' boys have lost 14 games mainly because they kick the ball at the worst possible time, or fail to hit when its needed.

Richmond got everything clicking at once last night and turned back Marion, 5-0. Right hander Jim Herndon allowed Marion only three hits and his roundhouse curve completely baffled the Cubs.

In the other games, Muncie scored its fifth straight win over Lima, 7-5; Springfield kept on Muncie's heels by scoring its sixth straight over Newark, 7-4, and Zanesville moved into undisputed possession of third place by knocking Portsmouth into fourth, 12-1.

Fred Wagner, a Zanesville boy, won his first pro gmae before the home folks by setting Portsmouth down with four hits. The A's lone run came on pitcher Em Daino's inside-the-park homer in the fifth. Zanesville clinched the decision with a nine-run sixth inning.

Lima had a 4-2 lead over Muncie when Harold Ensley came in for the Reds in the third. He allowed three hits the rest of the way. Carl Bush, Muncie first baseman, hit two homers, driving across three runs.

Newark's Ed Bobowski struck out 12 Springfield batters, but Newark errors put him in the hole in the second and third innings. Springfield scored six of its runs in those innings.

The box scores:

Muncie	200 101 021—7	10	1

30 Cars Ready To Start at Indianapolis

By The Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27 — Thirty cars were ready today to start in the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Monday.

Seven cars made their ten-mile qualifying runs yesterday to bring the lineup within three of the maximum starting field. The 34 unqualified cars remaining at the track have only Saturday left in which to try for positions.

If more than 33 cars pass the qualification test the slowest will be eliminated to hold the field to that number.

Mack Ellings of Burbank, Calif., led yesterday's seven with an average of 127.968 miles an hour in a new four-cylinder Kurtis-Kraft owned by Don Lee, Inc., Los Angeles. His run was good for $300 and placed him in the eighth row of the starting lineup.

Frank Smith Hurls One-Hitter in South

Frank Smith, the Marion Cubs mound ace last year, pitched a one-hitter recently against Charleston, S. C. of the Sally league. His Columbia Reds won, 12-0. The only hit was a single over second by Charlie Scruggs with two out in the sixth.

Frank pitched a no-hitter against Lima here August 31 last year and missed the perfect game when he walked a man with one out in the ninth.

He was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds after the Cubs moved him to class B ball.

Harding, St. Mary Boosters Take Over Ticket Selling

Harding and St Mary Booster clubs have taken over the job of selling left-over tickets to the Marion Cubs-Portsmouth Athletics benefit baseball game

A contest to sell the ducats ended in the schools Tuesday

Final tally of tickets sold in the school campaign and the winners in the contest are not as yet determined

Sale of tickets, as of Tuesday noon, was turned over to the combined Harding and St. Mary Booster clubs Their campaign will run from the present time until the night of the game. The Harding club, with 700 members and St Mary, with 400, will place two tickets with each member—to sell or to buy, whichever is his wont

Non-city members will be furnished self-addressed envelopes in addition to a pair of passes, in the event they desire to return the ducats to the Booster clubs.

Other plans will include street-selling and the placing of salesmen at the ball park gate Sale of tickets also will be publicized over the pubic address system at the ball park.

Let's get behind the clubs, folks —and help the Boosters boost ticket sales It's all for the schools —with a good baseball game thrown in!

Winners of the schools' contest will be announced and a prize will be awarded the night of the game, June 5

The Reds opened scoring against the Braves in the second inning Doubles by Sauer and Red Stallcup plus an error and passed ball set up two runs

The Braves matched the score in the third with three hits and went ahead in the fourth as Bill Salkeld homered and Alvin Dark scored on a combination of a bunt, wild pitch and error.

Hatton drew a walk and scored in the fifth as Sauer and Danny Litwhiler hit, and in the sixth the Reds drove Warren Spahn from the mound Stallcup and Bobby Adams singled and Ted Wyrostek doubled before another lefthander, Shoun, replaced Spahn

TRAFFIC CLINIC REVEALS DATA

Drivers' Chances of Accident in Proportion to Number of Tickets Received.

By The Associated Press

HARTFORD, Conn., May 27 — The more tickets you get from a traffic cop, a group of experts reported today, the better are the chances that an automobile accident awaits you.

The experts, who recently conducted a New York university sponsored clinic here to determine what makes a good driver, concluded also that poor drivers have "a high opinion" of how much liquor they can hold.

The conclusions were based on data collected from 93 accident-free drivers and 93 with records of repeated accidents. Each driver was given an extensive test lasting an hour and a half.

Repeated traffic violations, said the report made public by the Connecticut motor vehicles department, "can be considered as a symptom or forerunner of an accident."

The 93 "repeaters," the survey showed, had a combined record of 325 accidents and 338 traffic violations. Their licenses were suspended 112 times.

None of the accident-free drivers was ever arrested for a traffic violation or had his license suspended.

"Undoubtedly," said the report, "the best indication that a driver will have accidents is his record of repeated violations."

Indicate "Tolerance"

On the subject of drinking and driving, the experts said that "poor drivers indicated significantly higher opinions of their alcohol tolerance" than the good drivers.

Forty-one per cent of the "repeaters" felt they could take five drinks without serious effects on their driving, while a few of them said they could take 10 or more drinks.

"'Repeaters' evidently have a high opinion of their own capacities," concluded the experts.

Other conclusions reported were that:

The greater the knowledge of traffic laws and safety rules, the better the driver's accident record.

"Repeaters" prefer higher speeds.

Accident-free drivers showed "an indication toward better driving attitudes." They were outnumbered, for example, by the "repeaters" in feeling that success in avoiding accidents "depends more on luck than on real ability."

Sought Safety Data

The experts, whose survey was financed by the Eno Foundation for Traffic Control, reported that man's blood pressure apparently has nothing to do with whether he's a good or bad driver. The same goes for a driver's recreational activities.

"There are, however, certain exceptions," they said. "Twice as many 'repeaters' like playing cards for money, attending night clubs and race tracks. But this should not be taken as characterizing the 'repeater.' Actually, their average age was lower and their avarege income higher. No one should draw erroneous conclusions regarding this."

The report, described as a summary to be followed later by a full report, said the survey sought to answer:

"What can be disclosed about the driver himself that will enable the states to improve driver licensing procedures and contribute to highway safety."

In the 16th Century, many Britons wore "cramp rings" which they believe prevent paralysis.

At Marlboro the last memorial service of a series of more than 50 years of such observances will be held on the thirty-first, Monday, at 9:30 a. m. Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — AH, THE simple life, the good old healthy simple life.

Everybody agrees it's best—but you can't live it in an awfully complicated way.

There was Marie Antoinette, a pretty French queen who never lost her head but once. In her prime she took to heart the back-to-nature advice of Jean Jacques Rousseau, a philosopher who preached the simple life long before Bernard MacFadden made the raw carrot respectable.

Hal Boyle

Marie's idea of simplicity was to erect a number of rustic villas around the Petit Trianon, her toy castle at Versailles. There she and her court pals played at milkmaid in silk and satin. They milked the cows in a marble barn.

La Belle Antoinette was convinced it was a wonderfully simple life. Or simply wonderful. If anybody got callouses it was the cows.

This same kind of hocus-pocus goes on today, but here in the home of the Bronx jeer it usually is rewarded with a noisy raspberry.

In New York a millionaire is expected to live like a millionaire. A man with money who makes a show of living simply is suspected of either being stingy or just simple in the head. The idea held by several million people here is that money isn't something to be annoyed at having. It's something to get and enjoy out loud. You spend it with a bang.

"IT'S SO GOOD to get back to New York where everything is real," cry actors returning from the west coast. "Hollywood is so phoney."

And that brings us to the tale of the Hollywood film executive sentenced to serve a term in durance vile here on the stone canyons of Broadway, whence cometh much movie dough.

In keeping with the spirit of poverty that has recently shadowed the celluloid empire, the executive and his wife decided they would avoid display and lead a life of rugged simplicity.

So for their summer stay they rented a fourth-floor walkup flat at $175 a month. It was charming squalor to them—a small kitchen, a tiny dining balcony, a bath, a living room, and a bedroom and a half.

Well, shades of Marie Antoinette!

THE WIFE HIRED a secretary and brought along a personal maid, an upstairs maid, and a downstairs maid. She also brought along a French chef to cook for her husband, who is on his third ulcer and can eat only broiled chicken and broiled lamb chops.

Because there was no room for the servants, they had to be put up at an expensive hotel nearby at a cost in excess of the apartment itself.

The film colony refugees also put in new drapes, had new slip covers made for every piece of furniture in the place, and built in a long wooden closet which they'll have to have torn out at summer's end. Although the apartment is cluttered up with muscle, an outside cleaning firm is called in once a week to mop and dust the joint. The fee: $15.

BUT THE WIFE doesn't have time. She's out shopping all day. The personal maid is too busy sewing on buttons. The downstairs maid is too busy washing the clothes bags and wiping the books. The upstairs maid is too busy doing the dishes. The French chef—well, he has to broil that lamb chop.

A writer who relayed me this Hollywood version of roughing-it-in-the-big-city said dazedly:

"When the wife gets back home she'll tell all her friends:

"'We had the cutest little studio apartment in Manhattan. We lived just like a couple of struggling young artists.'"

Well, you can't beat the simple life at its best. Caviar is no higher than hen's eggs—if you buy it by the egg.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Breastfed Baby Is Healthiest

There is no doubt in the world that "the breastfed baby is the bestfed baby." This is a proved fact and it has also been definitely shown that nine out of every ten women who try to nurse their babies will have enough milk for them by the fifth day after birth.

Why is it then that in so many localities today less than one-third of our babies are breast-fed? The plain truth is that too many modern mothers simply don't want to nurse their infants. And if the breasts are not emptied regularly and completely, the milk supply soon fails.

Some mothers even have the utterly mistaken idea that the bottle-fed baby will gain faster and get along better than the breast-fed infant. Others frankly object because they believe breast feeding will cause them to gain weight or change the shape of the breast. Neither of these things is true and, if they were, they would still not justify a mother in refusing to nurse her baby. The things which do are few in number and of infrequent occurrence. Chiefly, they are an acute illness, inflammation of the breast, cracked nipples, or pregnancy.

Another reason can be found in the conflicting blood types which sometimes exist in mother and babe. Thus, it is inadvisable for a mother who is Rh negative to nurse her Rh positive baby. The Rh refers to a certain factor in the blood which may be present in the infant and not in the mother.

Now and then, in rare cases, the baby may actually be sensitive or allergic to the mother's milk.

Where it is possible at all, breast feeding has many advantages and no known disadvantages. Besides giving the baby a perfect diet for his physical nourishment, breast feeding supplies an emotional satisfaction to both mother and infant which cannot be obtained in any other way.

The mother who is breast feeding her baby need not gain weight if she employs a well-balanced diet that does not contain an excessive amount of starchy foods, sugars and fats. Otherwise, she need not restrict herself, but may eat any food that agrees with her.

There also has beena question in the minds of some mothers as to whether or not smoking is permissible if they breast feed their babies. It seems to be generally agreed that moderate smoking will not be harmful to the infant.

Some specialists think it is all right for the mother to give the baby one bottle feeding a day, so that she will not be completely tied down and carry on her social and other activities.

It is very important that the baby get breast milk during the first four or five months of life, during which time the mother's activities will be limited to some extent in any event.

Every mother owes it to her baby to make every possible attempt to breast feed him.

Questions and Answers

E. H. S.: What causes the skin around the fingernails to become cracked?

Answer: This may be due to eczema or dermatitis. A fungus infection might be responsible.

The dermatitis may be due to the fact that you are sensitive to something with which you come in contact. A thorough study by a skin specialist would be advisable.

Cap Badges To Complete New Sheriff Uniforms

Sheriff LeRoy Retterer reported today that special cap badges have been ordered to complete the insignia of the new uniforms which he and his three deputies, M. E. Baldwin, Edgar Fink; and George Conroy, are sporting these days.

The uniforms, which are of blue-gray worsted with "Ike" type jackets, bill caps and slacks, bear prominent insignia of the sheriff's department on each upper sleeve, and a badge on the left jacket pocket, to identify each officer in serving papers and while making arrests.

The uniforms were purchased by the sheriff and his deputies at their own expense as no appropriation to cover uniforms has been made for the sheriff's office.

PURGE RULES SET UP FOR BRITISH SERVICE

By The Associated Press

LONDON, May 27—The treasury has laid down the formal rules for Britain's purge of Communist and Fascist civil service workers from government security jobs.

A worker with a confidential assignment will be removed if he is a member of the Communist party or a Fascist organization, or associated with either "in such a way as to raise legitimate doubts about his reliability."

The cabinet member who heads the department will be the final judge.

A worker who is removed from a secret job will have the right of transfer to a non-secret branch in his own or another department. However, if he is engaged in such work that no non-secret jobs are available, he must resign or be discharged.

If a worker is separated from the payroll by either resignation or dismissal he loses all pension rights.

The treasury summary of the regulations said the procedure will be as follows:

The minister involved will consider evidence against a worker in his department and decide whether there is a prima facie case. If in his judgment there is, he will so advise the civil servant and give him particulars, such as the date of his alleged membership or nature of his association.

However, the treasury cautioned, "there will have to be limits to the information given, for he cannot be given such particulars as might involve the disclosure of the sources of the evidence."

If the civil service worker accepts the evidence, he will be replaced in his job. If he does not, he may go before a board of three advisers to the minister whose only function is to advise the minister on questions of fact. Meanwhile, the worker will go on special leave with pay.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Janey really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

Dicky wiped his brow with an exaggerated gesture when Faith after dutifully kissing us all goodnight, went with Katharine down to her own room.

"She must inherit that eternal questioning from your side of the family, Madge," he said when our small daughter was safely out of hearing. "She certainly doesn't get it from mine."

"You don't deserve to have a super quiz program kid like that one with all the answers as well as the questions," Harry Underwood told him; "but you're right on one point. She certainly must get her little gray cells from her mother. She'd be a high-class moron—notice I did you the favor of saying 'high-class' if she only had your intellect chasing around inside her skull. There'd be plenty of room for it to circulate too," he added darkly.

Lillian rose abruptly, and crossed to him.

"That was one of your better efforts, darling," she said. "Don't try to improve on it. Get yourself over to the telephone, and order us a taxi—through Miller," she added with a look at Dicky.

"Yes, seeing it's you," he told her with a bow. "That man you've married could go home in a wheelbarrow, for all of me. But I suppose you're soft-hearted enough to let him crawl into the taxi with you."

"That depends on his speed in getting one," Lillian said with a chuckle, and her big husband ambled to the telephone, took down the receiver, and asked for Miller.

"How soon can we have a taxi, Miller?" he asked. "Good. We'll be right down."

He turned from the telephone to his wife.

"Get on your old grey bunnit," he told her. Then he fixed his eyes on Dicky with a slow grin.

"You're getting too big for your britches, young feller," he said. "I'll have to trim you down to size one of these days."

"You and how many other big fat men?" Dicky shot back in a burlesqued, taunting tone.

"Me, with my right arm tied behind me, and one leg in a cast," Harry boasted, but his wife took his arm, and propelled him to the door, handing him his hat and top coat which she had caught up from a chair.

"Good-night, folks," she said, as they went out of the door. "We'll be over tomorrow, and help pick up the pieces."

Katharine came back into the room just after they had left, and gave me a look which I know she calls the "once and twice over."

"Faith is nearly asleep," she said, "and so are you. Where do you want to park?"

"Could she—" Mary began tremulously, and Katharine shot a keen look at her.

"If you'll promise not to talk to her more than ten minutes, not a second longer, I'll let her sleep down here," she said. "I'll go over to my own suite, and the Dicky-bird can roost wherever he drops his wing."

"I'm going to drop it in my studio," my husband said. "Is there anything you want of me before I go, Madge?" he asked, coming over to give me a conjugal good-night kiss.

"Not a thing," I told him. "But I do want to talk to you in the morning."

"I'll be on hand," he promised, and then he and Katharine were gone, and Mary, I saw, was covertly watching me.

"Auntie Madge," she said, and stopped.

"Yes, darling," I answered encouragingly.

"What do you really think about Georges?" she quavered. "Has he really given up that outrageous idea about me? Will he go on with the wedding without making a scene"

MEMBERS PAYING UN DUES PROMPTLY

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, May 27—On dues collections the United Nations has become a whopping success.

Member nations are paying their dues with much more unanimity than they show around the conference tables.

Assistant Secretary - General Byron Prite and the UN treasurer, Noel Monod of France consider this remarkable, in view of the shortage of United States dollars in the last two years.

This year, the UN decided to make it easier on the 58 member nations.

It was decided that one-eighth of the 1948 dues could be paid in Swiss or Freinch francs, or Dutch guilders. The remainder must be paid in dollars.

Swiss francs are needed to pay bills in Geneva, where there is a large UN office in the old League of Nations palace.

Dutch guilders are helpful to pay bills for the international court of justice, which sits at The Hague.

French francs will come in handy when the UN assembly meets in Paris Sept. 21.

The UN assessments for 1948 total $34,698,000. Thirty of the 58 members had paid $2,970,678.00 on this year's bill by May 20. Price and Monod expect the rest to come along in good time.

The United States leads the list again this year, as it has in the last two years.

This country has been assessed $13,841,032. The UN expects to receive the U. S. dues in July.

Russia is down for $2,199,853, of which Moscow has paid $82,494.50 in Dutch guilders.

Britain was assessed $3,983,331, of which she has paid $298,749.

China has not paid any part of her assessment of $2,081,880 for this year.

In event of rain the program will be held at the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Wilmer Miller, Mrs. M. H. Brady, Mrs. Anna Zimmerman, Mrs. Mary Seiter, Mrs. Edith Morris and the cemetery flower committee will assemble the bouquets at the school house on Monday morning at 9:30 p. m.

The school band, color bearers and young people of all youth groups, veterans and others will assemble at the school house to march to the cemetery.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

JOSEPH C. GREW, born May 27, 1880, came to world notice in nine years as U. S. envoy to Japan until World War II sent him home. In 11 years before Grew there had been six U. S. ambassadors. He is a son of a wealthy Boston family. He once told some State Department novices, "all you have to do to get into the foreign service is to answer a few questions. I had to shoot a tiger." (Grew's hunting skill brought him to the attention of Theodore Roosevelt.)

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

The secretary of the treasury is asking for more tax agents . . . He is anxious to prove that people are essentially honest if carefully watched.

The eventual goal is two treasury agents for each taxpayer . . . The profit will be less but volume will run high.

It is not that taxpayers are deliberately dishonest . . . They are just inclined to make adjustments which congress has neglected to do.

Meanwhile the cold war between the treasury and Miss Vivien Kellems is warming up . . . Having made an initial landing in the lady's bank the government forces are digging in for the expected counter-attack.

Miss Kellems is the manufacturer who believes that if Caesar wants rendered unto him the things that are his he better arrange to get his own reindeers.

Her viewpoint may not be right but it's sure interesting . . . Stand by for further bulletins.
